

Richard Rivera, D.C., FACO

Board Certified | Active Practice

Certification:

Fellow, American Academy of Chiropractic Orthopedists (FACO)

Licensure:

Washington, Alaska, Idaho, Arizona, California, and Nevada

physician spotlight

General Information

CURRENT PRACTICE

Rivera Chiropractic
Seattle, Washington

PRIOR EXPERIENCE

Chiropractic Physicians, Inc.
Bellevue and Tacoma, Washington

Atals Health Center
Los Angeles, California

PROFESSIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Chiropractic Orthopedists of North America
Council of Chiropractic Orthopedics
Academy of Chiropractic Orthopedists
American Chiropractic Association
American Back Society
American Board of Disability Analysts
Washington Hispanic Soccer League Team Physician
Contributor to Analysis of Chiropractic 2000 by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners

Education

UNDERGRADUATE

University of Washington
Bachelor of Arts
Seattle, Washington

CHIROPRACTIC

Cleveland Chiropractic College
Doctor of Chiropractic
Los Angeles, California

Los Angeles Chiropractic College
Chiropractic Orthopedic Degree
Los Angeles, California

INTERNSHIP

Cleveland Chiropractic Clinic
Los Angeles, California

Coast Plaza Doctors Hospital
General Surgery Rotation
Norwalk, California

Valles Chiropractic Center
Fairfield, California

IME experience

Dr. Rivera has a strong background in workers' compensation and casualty claims and is an experienced legal IME provider. Dr. Rivera is well versed in both the fifth and sixth editions of the AMA Guides to the Evaluation of Permanent Impairment. His availability for IMEs include our Anchorage, Idaho and Washington clinics.

For availability, questions, or to schedule an appointment:
Please contact OMAC Client Services at 800.331.6622 or scheduling@omacime.com